

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

I. Story of the Confederate Armored Ram Arkansas. Her Achievements Unmatched in Naval Warfare. By Rev. John Johnson, D. D.....	1
II. Trees Whittled Down at Horse shoe; Graphic Account of this Memorable Engagement. By Captain W. W. Old...	16
III. Recollections of Gen. G. M. Sorrel; A Correction and a Vindication of Gen. D. H. Hill. By Col. Archer Anderson	25
IV. The Lost Sword of Gen. R. B. Garnett (who fell at Gettysburg) returned to his neice, Mrs. John B. Purcell. By Col. Winfield Peters, U. C. V., with account of how Gen. Garnett met his death.....	26
V. Balloon used for Scout Duty. Terrible Experience of a Confederate Officer. By Captain John Randolph Bryan.....	32
VI. Honor Roll of the University of Virginia. Students who died in Defence of the South's Cause.....	43
VII. The Battle of Bethesda Church; Account of this Bloody Contest. By Col. C. B. Christian.....	57
VIII. Address at Newton, N. C., before the Annual Re-Union of Confederate Veterans. By Col. R. T. Bennett, late of 14th N. C. Troops; with Appendix as to the Last Charge at Appomattox, etc.....	59
IX. John Yates Beall, Martyr. By J. H. Crawford.....	71
X. The Crisis of the Confederacy, "A Comment." By Edward L. Wells, Esq., upon Capt. Cecil Battine's "History of Gettysburg and the Wilderness,".....	79
XI. Confederate Cavalry around Port Hudson; their Dashing Exploits. By W. H. Pascoe.....	83
XII. Battle of Sharpsburg or Antietam By Col. E. M. Morrison, and a comparison of the losses there with those of other great battles. By Gen. E. A. Carman.....	105
XIII. My Personal Experiences in Taking up Arms and in the Battle of Malvern Hill, Gettysburg, Pickett's Charge. Addresses by Hon. James F. Crocker before Stonewall Camp, C. V., Portsmouth, Va., on February 6, 1889, and November 7, 1894.....	111

XIV. General Lee at Gettysburg; A Paper read before the Military Historical Society of Massachusetts, April 4th, 1905. By James Power Smith, Capt. and A. D. C. to Gen. Ewell.	135
XV. Some of the Drug Conditions During the War Between the States, 1861-5; A Paper read before the American Pharmaceutical Association in Baltimore, Md., in August, 1897. By Joseph Jacobs, pharmacist, Atlanta, Ga.	161
XVI. Seals, Stamps and Currency for the Confederacy, made by Julius B. Baumgarten, engraver.	188
XVII. The Last Charge at Appomattox. By Capt. M. J. Billmyer.	191
XVIII. The 12th Alabama Infantry, C. S. A.; Its Organization, Associations, Engagements, Casualties, etc. By Robert E. Park, late Capt. Co. E., 12th Alabama.	193
XIX. Returned Confederate Flags, Exercises at the 18th Annual Re-Union, Grand Camp, C. V. Eloquent Address of Hon. John Lamb.	297
XX. Roster of the Battalion of the Georgia Military Institute Cadets in the Confederate Army; Service from May 16th, 1864, to May 20th, 1865. By Robert L. Rodgers.	306
XXI. The Battle near Spotsylvania C. H., on May 18th, 1864. An Address before R. E. Lee Camp, C. V., January 20th, 1905. By Col. W. E. Cutshaw.	320
XXII. Major General Edward Johnson at Spotsylvania. By Major Robert W. Hunter.	335
XXIII. Artillery Work at Wilderness. By Major A. W. Garber.	341
XXIV. Last Days of the Army in Southwest Va. By Prof. Milton W. Humphreys.	344
XXV. Field of Blood was the Crater. Address by Col. W. H. Stewart, October 26th, 1905.	351
XXVI. Graphic Account of the Battle of the Crater, charge of Wilcox's old Brigade under Gen. J. C. C. Saunders. By Capt. John C. Featherstone.	358
XXVII. How Gen. R. E. Lee saved the Life of a Federal Officer. By Lieut. S. M. Gaines.	375